A description of the foure Quarters of the yeere:

And first of Winter.

O in 1/2 200 X.

He winter Quarter Aftronomicall for this yeare 1640, began the last passed yeare 1630. upon Thursday the 12 of cember, when the Sunne did enter the first gree of Capricorne; and doth end this reupon Wednesday the 11 of March; for nthe Sunne entreth into Aries, making

This Winter quarter of its proper nature old and moift, and of complexion flegmate, good for whole and found people, dangerous to those that are sicke and disled. In this season the inward parts of evefentible creature are very hot, and (being lthfull) they may receive great plenty of de, because naturall heate is now comfor-, for it is driven inwards, and there increah, and maketh the digestion more strong. The ficknesses whereunto this quarter is lined, are Rheumes, Gouts, Paifies, thes, fore Eyes, Melancholy, Coughes, thars, Sciaticaes, paines in the Brettand ngs, with divers infirmities incident among men,&c.

Of the fecond quarter of th yeare called the Spring.

O in Y & IL

He Spring time (being the second pan the Astronomicall yeare) taketh its ginning on Wednesday the I'I of Mar when the Sunne entreth into the first deg of Aries, the Equinoctiall point, making daies and nights of equall length, which qu ter endeth on Friday the 12. of June, wh the Sunne entreth into Cancer.

This Season is naturally hot and mo and is of the Sanguine complexion, being most temperate and healthfull time of yeare, yet bringeth it (or rather shew forth) many diseases, not ingendering the by excesse, but discovering them which inwardly bred, by the distemperature of ot times: yet it is the most fitting season to pell difeafes, that have beene of any longe blood.

f the third part of the yeere called Summer.
